Philosophy & Ethics

Dr. Brian Huffling, Ph.D.

Syllabus

2024-2025

Description:

To understand our culture today, students need to know the ideas espoused by ancient thinkers like Plato and Aristotle, Christian philosophers like Augustine and Aquinas, and molders of modern thought such as Kant and Nietzsche. This course will reveal the influence their ideas have had on world events, theology, and our everyday lives.

Prerequisites:

None.

Course Materials:

Sproul, R. C. The Consequences of Ideas: Understanding the Concepts that Shaped Our World. Wheaton, IL: Crossway, 2009.

Assignment Structure:

Students will be required to complete the reading of the assigned textbook, which will be reported by the last day of the semester. There will be two exams: a midterm and a final. The quizzes are designed to prepare the students for the exams. Quizzes: There will be periodic quizzes that are objective and taken on Canvas.
